

Andricka Williams, guest for the District2ForU Virtual Community Meeting!

Baton Rouge, LA - Metro Councilwoman Chauna Banks will interview Andricka Williams, mother of Alton Sterling's three youngest children, today on the District2ForU Virtual Community Meeting.

The virtual meeting will be held Tuesday, October 27, 2020 at 6:00 p. m. The community is invited to register at www.brla.gov/district2foru. Questions for Ms. Williams may be submitted via our District2ForU Facebook page.

Alton Sterling's five children lost their father in a 2016 police shooting that ignited protests nationwide. Now more than four years after the Black man was killed during a struggle with two White police officers outside a Baton Rouge convenience store, Andricka Williams shares her story.

For more information, contact Council District 2 Office at (225) 389-8331.