FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ATTEMPTED MURDER ARREST

Correction – The individual arrested is WILLIAM GARNER, not GARDNER.

Today, Baton Rouge Police Detectives arrested WILLIAM GARNER, 57 of Baton Rouge, Louisiana, on the charges of Attempt First Degree Murder (3 counts), Possession of Firearm or Carrying Concealed Weapon by a Person Convicted of Certain Felonies and Illegal use of Weapons or Dangerous Instrumentalities.

Uniformed Officers responded to a residence in the 5900 block of Cadillac Street relative to a male suspect, later identified as WILLIAM GARNER, beating on the door while armed with a gun. During the course of the investigation, GARNER fired his weapon at officers and as a result, officers returned fire. No one was injured during the shooting. GARNER was later apprehended at his residence.

GARNER was booked in the East Baton Rouge Parish Prison on the aforementioned charges.
