

Cancer Center Health Equity Listening Session

Councilwoman Chauna Banks and the Mary Bird Perkins will host a community listening session on Saturday, March 11, 2023, 11am-1pm at the Jewel J. Newman Community Center located at 2013 Central Ave., Baton Rouge, LA. to provide Cancer Center healthy equity professionals with feedback on barriers to cancer care, healthcare experiences and support services needed in the north Baton Rouge community. Cancer survivors, cancer patients and cancer caregivers are encouraged to attend.

As part of the listening sessions, participants will engage in a conversation by sharing their experiences and viewpoints, led by a professional facilitator. Information shared with remain anonymous, but be used to address key concerns related to access to cancer care.

Refreshments and giveaways will be provided at each event. This initiative is supported by The Alliance for Equity in Cancer Care, an initiative funded by Merck Foundation and Genentech.

REGISTRATION OPENS: MARCH 6, 2023

<https://www.eventbrite.com/e/cancer-center-health-equity-listening-session-tickets-570089572257>

For more information, contact Kirstin Wright at ktwright@brla.gov or Krystal Thomas at kthomas@brla.gov.