Point of Order: “A Conversation with the Councilman”

Baton Rouge, LA – Councilman Darryl Hurst will host Point of Order: “A Conversation with the Councilman” featuring public servant and viral sensation Councilman Eric Mays of Flint, Mich., at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, August 23rd, at Southern University’s Valdry Center for Philanthropy. The limited-seating event will be open to the public and will feature a discussion on a variety of topics, including civic engagement, community involvement and more.

Point of Order will provide a unique opportunity to hear directly from Councilman Mays, recently seen on the Rickey Smiley Morning Show and well known for his outspoken leadership and eccentric approach. He will also be available to answer questions and share information on future projects.

“Councilman Mays is proof that one voice can make an impact, and I hope you’ll join me on August 23rd for this highly anticipated conversation,” said Councilman Hurst.

For more information on the Point of Order event, please contact Tierra Small, Legislative Assistant to Councilman Darryl Hurst, at 225-389-4831 or tsmall@brla.gov.
