

TALE OF TWO CITIES: Zone of Influence Informational Meeting

Baton Rouge, LA — Metropolitan Councilwoman Chauna Banks announces an upcoming District2ForU Informational Meeting, scheduled from 5:15 p.m. to 7:45 p.m. Wednesday, August 30, 2023, at the Zachary Branch Library, located at 1900 Church Street, Zachary, LA 70791.

The meeting will provide insights and discussions on various subjects that concern the residents of the unincorporated Baker and Zachary areas.

Agenda Highlights:

- Zone of Influence Defined and Its Purpose
- Zone of Influence Impact on City Planning
- Educational Opportunities for Unincorporated Baker and Zachary
- Public Service Providers for Unincorporated Baker and Zachary
- Taxes, Millages, and Uses for Unincorporated Baker and Zachary Residents

This session will feature representatives from local organizations and government entities who are invited to attend and share valuable information, including:

- East Baton Rouge Tax Assessor
- East Baton Rouge Planning Division
- East Baton Rouge Sheriff's Office
- Office of the Mayor, Fire Department, Police Department, and Public Works of the City of Baker
- Office of the Mayor, Fire Department, Police Department, and Public Works of the City of Zachary
- Office of the Superintendent, City of Baker Schools
- Office of the Superintendent, Zachary School District
- Geo Preparatory-Baker
- Advantage Charter Academy
- Impact Charter School

Councilwoman Banks encourages all residents, stakeholders, and interested parties to attend this informational meeting.

For further information or inquiries, please contact Councilwoman Chauna Banks at (225) 389-8331 or via email at cbanks@brla.gov.