

How Are the Children? A Community Youth Justice Town Hall

Baton Rouge, LA - Metropolitan Councilwoman Carolyn Coleman is proud to announce and invite the community to a town hall meeting titled "How Are the Children? A Community Youth Justice Town Hall." This event is scheduled for Saturday, August 26, 2023, from 9:30 a.m. to 12:00 p.m., and will take place at the Dr. Leo S. Butler Community Center, located at 950 Lorri Burgess Ave., Baton Rouge, Louisiana 70802.

Councilwoman Coleman has collaborated with various organizations dedicated to youth justice and welfare. These participants range from a diverse array of organizations, including:

- LSU Law Center Juvenile Defense Clinic
- Southern University Law Center Juvenile Defense Clinic
- EBR Office of the Public Defender, Juvenile Section
- EBR Juvenile Client Services Unit
- Louisiana Center for Children's Rights
- Louisiana Public Defender Board
- PREACH
- Youth Oasis
- Front Yard Bikes

Participants will have the opportunity to find out how the children in our community are doing and what we can do to support them, while indulging in a delicious breakfast, explore vendor offerings, and even have a chance to win exciting door prizes.
