

COUNCILWOMAN CHAUNA BANKS IN PARTNERSHIP WITH BLACK DADS HOST RIBBON CUTTING FOR “MY BABY’S CLOSET”

Baton Rouge, LA – Councilwoman Chauna Banks in partnership with Black Dads for Life will host the Ribbon Cutting for the opening “My Baby’s Closet” on November 13, 2023, at 11 a.m. at the Jewel J. Newman Community Center.

The closet will serve as a community resource where moms, dads, and families in need can receive baby supplies, support, as well as access to resources and opportunities to care for their babies.

Donations of diapers, wipes, and formula along with essential items such as strollers, car seats, etc. can be dropped off to “My Baby’s Closet” at the Jewel J. Newman Community Center, 2013 Central Rd., Baton Rouge, LA 70807.

Refreshments will be available as well as additional information about “My Baby’s Closet” and Black Dads for Life initiatives.
