

"A December To Remember"

Christmas Tree Lighting Festival

Baton Rouge, LA – Councilman Darryl Hurst invites the community to a magical evening filled with festive cheer as the community comes together for "A December To Remember" Christmas Tree Lighting Festival on Saturday, December 2, 2023, from 5:30-8:30 p.m. Join us at the corner of N. Sherwood Forest and Big Bend Ave. for a celebration that promises to captivate hearts and create lasting memories.

This year's festivities are set to be grander than ever, featuring an array of activities for all ages:

- 32-foot Christmas tree with a 3-foot topper
- Winter Wonderland with 20 tons of snow
- Over 30 pop-up shop vendors
- 9 choirs singing
- Seven ornament and craft stations
- FREE pictures with Santa
- Elves, gingerbread, and Snowman on Stilts
- Magical Entryway
- Polar Express Train
- Mechanical bull
- Reading with Mrs. Claus
- Screen on the Green: Watch holiday classics "Polar Express" and "A Christmas Story" under the stars in a cozy outdoor setting
- FREE food
- Resource fair

This spectacular event is made possible through the generous support of our sponsors:

- Mayor-President Sharon Weston Broome
- Councilman Darryl Hurst, District 5
- Vanessa Caston LaFleur, State Representative District 101
- Shashonnie Steward, District 4
- Regina Barrow, Louisiana State Senate District 15
- East Baton Rouge Parish Sheriff's Office
