

Glen Oaks Area Neighborhood Association Announces First Meeting of 2024

BATON ROUGE, LA - The Glen Oaks Area Neighborhood Association would like to invite the community to its first meeting of 2024, scheduled for February 1, 2024, at 6:00 p.m. The meeting will be held at the Charles R. Kelly Community Center, located at 3535 Riley St., Baton Rouge, LA 70805.

This event paves the way for the inclusion of the Glen Oaks Area Crime Prevention and Improvement District on the fall 2024 ballot. State Senator Regina Barrow, District 5 Councilman Darryl Hurst, and Glen Oaks Area Neighborhood Association President Christopher Richard played pivotal roles in the legislative process, championing this initiative with unwavering dedication.

The resolution, passed last summer, is a testament to the collective efforts of these community leaders who are committed to enhancing the security and integrity of the Glen Oaks Area. The upcoming ballot initiative represents a crucial step towards a safer and more vibrant community.

The agenda for the meeting is packed with important discussions, including updates on community projects, a timetable for upcoming events, the formation of new committees and officers, and much more. Residents can expect an engaging session that focuses on collaborative efforts to uplift the Glen Oaks Area.

Refreshments will be served during the meeting, providing an opportunity for community members to network and engage in meaningful conversations.

All residents, local businesses, and community stakeholders are encouraged to attend this landmark event. The Glen Oaks Area Neighborhood Association looks forward to a robust turnout, reflecting the shared commitment to the growth and prosperity of the Glen Oaks Area.
