

PRESS RELEASE PRESS RELEASE PRESS RELEASE

June 7, 2018

2nd Annual "Ties That Bind: Celebrating Fathers and Children"

The 2nd Annual "Ties That Bind: Celebrating Fathers and Children" will be held on Sunday, June 10, 3:00 p.m.-7:00 p.m., at the Jewel J. Newman Community Center, 2013 Central Road, Baton Rouge, La.

Special guests include Chief Murphy Paul, Baton Rouge Police Department; Pastor Stephen Precciely and his 11-year-old son, Elijah Precciely (recipient of full scholarship to Southern University); and music legend Vince Hutchinson.

The event is free and open to fathers, father-figures, and children throughout East Baton Rouge Parish. The goal is to provide fathers and father-figures with a day to promote the strong legacy of engaged fathers. This is an outdoor/indoor event with a lot of fun activities and games. Bring chairs, tables, blankets, and small tents.

We continue to accept contributing sponsors and resource booth partners for this event. Donation of restaurant and retail gift cards, electronics, movie tickets, pro-bono legal services, or whatever your heart desires are needed. These donations will be used as giveaways and door prizes.

Live performances by: Mardia Scott, A.V. Mitchell, Reggie Morgan. Spoken Word by: Jeremy Cason, Victor Hollins, Jr. & Sr., Spirit & Truth Dancers, and youth pastor Joseph London.

This event is a collaboration of F.O.A.M. (Father On A Mission) and S.A.V.E. Baton Rouge Youth Prayer Movement. Sponsors include Councilwoman Chauna Banks, Canes, Coca-Cola, Knock Knock Children's Museum, Louisiana Healthcare, Krispy Kreme, and many more!

For more information, contact F.O.A.M. Founder, Levar Robinson at (225) 247-2106 or the JJNCC at 775-3935, email jjncc@brgov.com.