

PRESS RELEASE

PRESS RELEASE

PRESS RELEASE

FOR RELEASE: June 11, 2018

Councilwoman Hosts Businesses Crime Prevention Meeting

Councilwoman Chauna Banks will host a crime prevention meeting for businesses owners. The meeting will be held on Monday, June 25, 2018, Scotlandville Branch Library, 7373 Scenic Highway, 5:30 p.m. -7:30 p.m.

Special guest will be Lt. Stephen Chenevert, Assistant District Commander, 4th District Police Station, located at Scenic Highway. The meeting is designed to bring business owners, community members and the police department together to deter crime in the business community. During the business meeting, participants are given tips on how to spot suspicious activity, property lighting, security measures and how to contact the police department.

The top crime prevention strategies discussed will include burglary, robbery, vandalism, shoplifting, employee theft and fraud. Participants are encouraged to share their problems, concerns and possible solutions.

For more information, call (225) 389-8331 or zhayes@brgov.com.