

Bus Tour To Highlight Impact of Ronaldson Field on Community

Metro Councilwoman Chauna Banks and Louisiana Environmental Action Network (LEAN) announce an Environmental Justice Presentation and Bus Tour, Friday, August 31, 1:00 p.m.-3:00 p.m., at BREC's Greenwood Community Park, 13350 LA-19 in Baker. The location will be the point of bus departure and return.

Elected officials, clergy, community leaders and the media are invited.

During the presentation, participants will learn of the harmful and destructive impact Ronaldson Field has on the Alsen and St. Irma Lee communities since it began operating over 20 years ago.

The bus tour will take riders through Alsen and St. Irma Lee neighborhoods to explore the demographic, sociocultural, and environmental injustices, tracing its history.

Seating is limited; please confirm your attendance on or before Thursday, August 30 at (225) 389-8331 or dlobertson@brgov.com.
