FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

NATIONAL NIGHT OUT AGAINST CRIME

The Baton Rouge Police Department is hosting National Night Out Against Crime on Thursday, September 20, 2018 from 5:00pm- 8:00pm at Baton Rouge Police Headquarters, 9000 Airline Hwy.

National Night Out Against Crime has proven to be an effective and enjoyable event to promote neighborhood spirit and positive community-police partnerships in our fight for safer communities. This community event has been enjoyed by all ages for several years.

Bring the kids and learn about crime prevention. Enjoy fun, gifts and free food. Get picture ID cards made for the children. Learn fire safety with the fire departments inter-active fire house. See police K-9 demonstrations. Dance to music, see specialty equipment used by law enforcement and get a close look at the huge police horses.

Let the criminals know that neighborhoods are getting organized and fighting back.

For more information, call the Community Resources Division at 225-389-4801.
