

What Color is Love? "One Blood" Race Talk

Join Councilwoman Tara Wicker, Councilman Trae Welch, the Community-Police Ambassadors, the Police Policy Advisory Council, and Community Stakeholders for the fourth session in a series of Conversations about Race.

This rescheduled session due to the Mardi Gras holiday, focusing on "Race and Communication," will be held on Tuesday, March 12th, from 6:00 to 8:00 PM at City Hall, 8th Floor, Room 804, 222 St. Louis Street.

This session will highlight how race, culture, experience and other factors play a significant role in the way that we communicate within our own race and others and the impact it has on race relations in our city. Everyone is invited to join in the discussion as we seek more opportunities to build bridges of unity throughout our community.

Councilwoman Wicker said, "One of my favorite quotes is, 'The greatest barrier to communication is the illusion that it has occurred.'"

Councilman Welch said, "These talks are important. What I love about doing this is the perspective I gain from listening to other people. The better we can understand one another, the better we all will be."

These events provide opportunities for open dialogue regarding race and race relations that are transparent and significant to improving how our community interacts with each other.
