IWE Kickoff Event

Hosted by Councilwoman Erika L. Green

IWE FESTIVAL strives to invigorate the culture and heritage of Baton Rouge and contribute to the economic well-being of the community. This one-day festival assembles an impressive group of writers, artists, and culture influencers on a national, regional, and local level. IWE Festival is celebrating its third year. The festival is held on June 8, 2019, on the Bluffs of Southern University A&M College, and brings live music, a children's zone, a vendors' corner, and headlining authors to the Baton Rouge and surrounding communities, and is free and open to all ages! The 2019 Vision is to shift the focus to capturing imagination, knowledge, and ideas of young people to enhance the mission of the nonprofit arm, Imagination Leads, with Honorary Co-Chair, Michael Foster of The Michael Foster Project, partnering with his Keys of Life nonprofit organization.

This evening, Councilwoman Erika L. Green will be hosting the IWE Festival Season Kickoff Event, and a celebration of Imagination Leads' one-year birthday!
