FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ARREST MADE IN PEDESTRIAN FATALITY

Baton Rouge Police Traffic Homicide Unit is investigating a fatal crash that occurred this morning on South I-110, near the area of East Washington Street, around 1:00am.

The on-scene investigation revealed that the pedestrian, CYRIL GREENE, 32 of 10169 Burnside Street, Convent, Louisiana, was the front passenger of a Honda vehicle as it proceeded south on I-110. For reasons unknown, GREENE opened the vehicle's door causing his cellular phone to fall out. As the driver attempted to bring the vehicle to a stop, GREENE exited the vehicle and began walking on the interstate to retrieve his phone. As a result, GREENE was struck by a 2003 Toyota Camry. GREENE died at the scene.

The driver of the Toyota Camry, CHRISTOPHER LONDON, 36 of 8215 Somerset Street, was not injured in the crash. LONDON was later booked in the East Baton Rouge Parish Prison on charges of DWI, Reckless Operation and Vehicular Homicide.

This investigation remains ongoing.
