

6th Race Talk Session: "Race and Law Enforcement"

What Color is Love? "One Blood" Race Talk

Join Councilwoman Tara Wicker, Councilman Trae Welch, the Community-Police Ambassadors, the Police Policy Advisory Council, and Community Stakeholders for the sixth session in a series of Conversations about Race.

This session focusing on "Race and Law Enforcement" will be held on Tuesday, May 7th, from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m. at City Hall, 222 St. Louis Street, Eighth Floor, Room 801.

This session will highlight the way that Race and Law Enforcement impacts our day-to-day lives, our communities and city. Everyone is invited to join in the discussion as we seek more opportunities to build bridges of unity throughout our community.

Councilwoman Tara Wicker said, "These conversations are important to where we are headed as a whole, we are getting closer! The more we talk, the more we understand each other. We are building TRUST, HONOR and INTEGRITY in a REAL, OPEN, and TRANSPARENT way. We are becoming closer to understanding each other as humans and not just through the lens of the color of our skin. These talks are allowing us to have a greater understanding from different perspectives. It allows us to step outside of our norm and communicate about issues that we normally only talk about behind closed doors."

Councilman Welch said, "These talks provide important information. What I love about doing this is the perspective I gain from listening to other people. The better we can understand one another, the better we all will be."

These events provide opportunities for open dialogue on race and race relations; these conversations are transparent and significant in improving how members of our community interact with each other.
