

Westgate Church Presents ... A Time to Laugh with Sister Cantaloupe!

At Local Women's Spring Tea

Westgate Church is holding its annual Women's Spring Tea on Saturday, May 25, 2019 at noon. The event will be located at the Jewel J. Newman Community Center, 2013 Central Road, Baton Rouge, LA. Doors will open at 11:00am.

"A Parade of Elegance," the event is set to be a special tea for the women of the community. Ladies can accessorize their attire with optional spring hats and gloves. There will be lots of activities for the attendees, including lunch, vendors, door prizes, and more. A special feature will be, Gospel comedian, Sister Cantaloupe.

Join us for tea and a time for fun, laughs, and gospel entertainment! Trina Jeffrie, aka "Sister Cantaloupe" brand of comedy will leave you in stitches. Touching on subjects such as those crazy cousins, we all have, and super saved saints, Sister Cantaloupe will have you gasping for air as she tells her stories in the way that only she can! Bring out the family, tell your church family, and knock your neighbor's door for a noontime of comedy laughs and community fellowship!

A native of Dallas, TX, Trina Jeffrie splits her time between Dallas and Los Angeles. She is the "Pioneer of Christian and Gospel Comedy", starting this form of comedy back in 1986. In 2016, Trina Jeffrie has received Lifetime Achievement Award from President Barack Obama. In addition to this, she has a comedy Award name after her called the Sister Cantaloupe award that is given out every year to up and coming Clean, Christian or Gospel comedians.

For more information or tickets, please contact the Westgate Church at (225)381-5703.