YLE (Youth Literacy Engagement) Final Session

Only one more YLE (Youth Literacy Engagement) Session left! These sessions have been leading up to the 3rd Annual IWE Festival to be held Saturday, June 8th at Southern University A&M College. We welcome families, caregivers, retired teachers, and youth to be involved in this initiative and gain useful literacy information during these YLE Sessions.

The sessions have been held at churches and schools in the community, and have created a working space to encourage literacy, including facilitated youth literacy activities, parent focus groups, literary competitions, speakers, free book giveaways, and food.

This last session will provide a workshop on Parenting Pillars of Cradle to K, and feature special guest speakers Dr. Leigh Griffin, Dr. Larry Lewis, Footsteps to Brilliance, Jasmine Walker, sign language storyteller, and more! We have additional surprises for students who sign up for our IWE Book Challenge!

The event is FREE and open to the public for ALL ages. We encourage everyone to attend.
