

Ties That Bind Us: A Father-Son Event

Councilwoman Chauna Banks invites fathers and sons of the community to attend Ties That Bind Us: A Father-Son Event, Sunday, June 9, 2019, 2:00p.m. - 4:00p.m. The event will take place at the Jewel J. Newman Community Center, 2013 Central Road, Baton Rouge, La 70807.

"Ties That Bind Us" will provide a perfect opportunity for fathers and sons to spend time growing closer to one another, and other fathers and sons. Fathers, grandfathers, uncles, and all other special men, teens and boys will discover the strong leaders they have been designed to be. Our goal is to provide fathers and sons with the opportunity to celebrate the joys of manhood, share wisdom, lessons, and engage local resources all to support manhood. We will be blessed with the ministry of Pastor Al Moore of Westgate Church, Port Allen, Louisiana.

Those in attendance have the favorable option to wear neck ties or bow ties. Just for fun, we will also have a YOU ARE THE FATHER Look A Like Contest. Tickets are available at the Jewel J. Newman Community for $15 to be eligible for door prizes, however there is no charge to attend.

Vendor booth participants do not pay a fee for set-up. We only require they provide door prize(s) valued at $25 or more. To obtain tickets or to secure a vendor booth, contact the Assistant to the Center Manager, Angel Best at (225)775-3935 or via email at ABest@brla.gov.
