FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FIVE ARRESTED IN ATTEMPTED ATM THEFTS WHILE OCCUPYING STOLEN VEHICLES.

Baton Rouge Police Detectives responded to the Chase Bank, 3554 S. Sherwood Forest Boulevard, today around 2:30am regarding an attempted theft of the ATM. Investigators believe that multiple suspects occupying a stolen red Ford F-250 were responsible. Investigators then learned of another attempted ATM theft occurring at the Chase Bank, 7346 Highland Road. The suspects, believed to be the same from S. Sherwood Forest, were now occupying a stolen white Ford F-250. As Uniform Patrol officers located the white F-250, the suspects began bailing out of the vehicle fleeing on foot. With the assistance of Uniform Patrol and K-9, four of the suspects were apprehended around Staring Lane. The fifth suspect was apprehended while driving within the perimeter looking to pick up the others.
