FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

RETIRED BRPD CHIEF WAYNE ROGILLIO

Chief Wayne Rogillio served the citizens of Baton Rouge for more than three decades, joining the Baton Rouge Police Department in 1962. In 1985, he rose to the rank of Chief and served in that role for seven years.

Chief Rogillio's dedication earned him a reputation as a fine man and mentor to law enforcement officers throughout Baton Rouge. Those who worked with Chief Rogillio knew him to be a firm, but fair leader — loved by all for his dedication to his officers and the Baton Rouge community.

On behalf of all the men and women of the Baton Rouge Police Department, I want to express our condolences and support to Chief Rogillio's family and friends.

Thank you for your service. Rest in Peace, Chief.
